AGREEMENT OF MUTUAL COOPERATION OF BDLA AND CZLA

This Agreement of Mutual Cooperation is made between the Federation of German Landscape Architects (BDLA) and the Czech Landscape Architects in Landscape and Garden Society (CZLA).

The main aim of the agreement is sharing experiences in strengthening the position of the landscape architecture in the Czech Republic, which will be fulfilled by the means of:

- sharing information through workshops, open conferences and other means,
- cooperation on projects

- launching cross-boarder projects involving German and Czech landscape architects
- creating a pool of common problems, topics, challenges
- sharing information, knowledge,
- establishing a platform for cooperation of young professionals,

- helping to promote successful Czech and German projects in each country (presentation on the BDLA and SZKT web pages and in other media).

The agreement was executed on the date of 10. June 2016 in Prague by

TILL REHWALDT
President BDLA

JANA PYSKOVA
